2024 LORI EVILLE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

NAPSA began awarding scholarships to attend the annual conference in 1987. The purpose of the award is to allow qualified individuals, who are otherwise unable, to attend the conference and return to their programs to put their newly acquired knowledge into action. In 2021, NAPSA and the pretrial field lost a friend and colleague. Lori Eville was a Corrections Specialist at the National Institute of Corrections. She was an incredible pretrial leader and advocate for training and education. The NAPSA Board voted to continue the scholarship program in memory of Lori Eville.

Description

Six (6) scholarship awards are given annually (one for each NAPSA region). Each scholarship pays for the cost of registration, travel, and hotel expenses to the 51st Annual Conference being held at the New Orleans Marriott hotel in New Orleans, Louisiana. All travel arrangements will be made by NAPSA at the most convenient price. To be considered for the Lori Eville Scholarship, the applicant must submit a completed application form, essays and required signatures.

Eligibility

Eligible applicants must fulfill one of the following criteria:

- a line staff member
- first linesupervisor
- program director from a program that has no more than fifteen employees

Application

An application will only be considered if the application form is fully completed, has the required signatures, is accompanied by the required typed essays, and arrives on or before the deadline. Each essay should be no more than 100 words in length. An application form is attached.

Deadline

To be considered for the scholarship, all materials must be received by 5:00 p.m. eastern on Friday, July 26, 2024. Materials must be sent to kim.struble@conferencedirect.org or the NAPSA Regional Director for which the candidate works. Please see the regional listing and map here.

Persons not selected for the scholarship but that have a desire to attend the conference, will be given a special registration code to receive the early bird registration rate of $550.00
